Narrating the stories to children and reading the same teaches them to associate books with love and affection.

Make sure that your child is able to handle the zip of his/ her bag, open and close the bottle cap, button up shirt and pant.

Make the child recognize his/her name. use a page and glue the photograph of your ward. Then write the letters of child's name.

MEMORY GAME

Place 10 objects on tray, show it to your child for few minutes. Then cover the tray. Ask him to recall the objects.

When you go on trip involve yourself and your child in active conversation of the experiences.
